

1. Main points of privacy policy:

- providing personal information for DK ImmoFinance is free,
- customers' personal information is kept in a safe way, according to the Resolution of August 29th, 1997 re: Security of Personal Information, and according to the directions of the Inspector for Security of Personal Information,
- customers may at any time edit or delete the provided information,
- DK ImmoFinance will notify their customers about all significant changes in privacy policy.

2. Information collection and use

The collected information is used mainly for marketing purpose and to lay claims resulting from company's operations. Additionally it can be used for statistics purpose or for other needs (e.g. sending noncommercial e-mails to the address provided by the user). The information will not be a subject to further processing, inconsistent with the purpose mentioned above, without customers approval. The customer may at any time delete their information from DK ImmoFinance database. After resignation, all personal information will be immediately deleted from the database. We do not sell or rent the collected information to a third party, unless it is the customer's wish or after customer's approval, or to an application from court, police, public prosecutor's office or other entitled organ in case the user violates the law. The customers' personal information can be transferred to the company's offices located around the country.

3. Maintaining and securing the information

The customers' personal information is maintained according to the requirements of the Inspector for Security of Personal Information and according to the Resolution of August 29th, 1997 re: Security of Personal Information (Resolution Bulletin no 133, point 883, with further changes). Only the database administrator has access to the database.

4. Ability to edit and delete the information

The customers may at any time check their personal information and have the right to either update or delete them. To delete the information they should contact the database administrator in writing (immofinance@immofinance.pl).

5. Information sent to customers

DK ImmoFinance e-mails customers information regarding offered services and technical news. DK ImmoFinance reserves their right to e-mail the users announcements about important changes in the system, commercial letters, especially advertisement and other types of commercial information. Advertisements and other commercial information may also be attached to the letters incoming and outgoing from the system account.

6. Changes in DK ImmoFinance privacy policy

Development of internet technology, changes in legislation regarding security of personal information, and also the company's growth, may affect its privacy policy. DK ImmoFinance will inform their customers about such changes according to the regulations of the Statute.